HarperCollins ANZ

Welcome to the HarperCollins ANZ Adult Books Illustrated Catalogue, a select showcase of new and forthcoming projects by extraordinary creative talent from Australia and New Zealand.

At HarperCollins, our love of publishing Australian and New Zealand stories has spanned more than a hundred years and continues to this day with a dedicated and passionate team of book-makers, book-sellers and book-spruikers. We love books that you can't put down, characters that you fall in love with, stories that stay with you long after you finish the last page--and of course books that you want to look at, pick up, and use again and again.

This guide contains titles from 4th Estate and HarperCollins NZ but they are primarily from our dedicated illustrated imprint, Harper By Design.

Enjoy!

Harper by Design

Harper by Design is an imprint focusing on beautiful books that help make every day special. Whether celebrating a milestone or looking to brighten someone's day, our products are perfect and affordable for all those moments throughout the year when you want to show someone (or yourself) that you care. We like to call it 'beauty with purpose'.

PLANTS ON FIRE

Simon Toohey

Modern vegetarian barbeque with maximum flavour.

Cooking over fire is part of humanity's connection to our history and each other. We know it makes food taste better, but most of us don't know how this applies to cooking vegetables and making them delicious.

In Plants on Fire, Simon takes us right back to the elemental beginnings of plant-based cooking and eating, and explains why it is not only good for our health but the environment too. From produce tips to specific facts about each ingredient, Simon's writing is approachable but sharp, with a focus on guiding readers with clarity and humour.

It's also a wealth of information, divided into two parts: techniques on the grill/BBQ to unlock flavour; followed by over 100 recipes for small, medium, large and sweet dishes that are guaranteed to impress at the dinner table or Sunday BBQ.

Whether you're a seasoned chef or someone who's never lifted a pair of tongs, Plants on Fire is a joyful celebration of fire and vegetables that will inspire you to take their cooking from good to brilliant.

Key points

- Perfect for fans of Lennox Hastie and Ben O'Donoghue and readers of Smith & Daughters and other plant-forward cookbooks
- Ideal for people looking to eat less meat, more vegetables and want to learn how to unlock their maximum flavour potential
- Great Christmas gift for the BBQ/smoker fanatic!

PLANTS ON FIRE

Simon Toohey

Simon Toohey is an Australian cook, entrepreneur, TV host and sustainability warrior. He launched his career in the dark depths of a bakery at aged 15 before travelling through South East Asia, India, Nepal, Turkey and Europe and eventually landing in London where he found himself working in one of the best cocktail bars in the world.

Discovering a love of food, Simon went on to study Gastronomy in Edinburgh, well and truly immersing himself in the world of taste and flavour. In 2019, he reached the finale of Australian MasterChef Season 11 and was asked back to be part of MasterChef 'Back to Win' Season 12 which included the twenty-four top chefs, business owners, TV-show hosts and writers that MasterChef has ever produced.

Between filming MasterChef seasons Simon started his own plant-based smokehouse restaurant in Melbourne, focusing on local, sustainable food and managing waste by cleverly utilising the whole ingredient. In 2022 Simon opened 2 new restaurants in India, both of which are plant-based and focus on supporting local producers and growers, and hero spices from the local regions.

In Australia Simon is the host of Channel 10's Freshly Picked - the only plant-based cooking show to have hit Australian screens - which has been renewed for two new seasons. He has also launched the 'Sustainable Earth Network', a company that aims to document creative and positive changes in the food industry and bring these stories to life on screen.

Simon is an ambassador for Dilmah and the MCF Foundation, Cockatoo Ridge, Hemp Foods Australia and Bank Australia, and has partnered with a range of other brands keen to drive awareness of the power of plants as a food source.

OSOUZAI

Meg Tanaka

Japanese share plates for everyday eating.

A range of quick, easy plant-forward recipes to share with family and friends no matter the occasion.

In Japanese, Osouzai お惣菜 means 'side dish'. Mainly made with vegetables, they can be prepared as a salad or cooked as a dish with some meat or seafood too.

Like Tapas is to Spain, Osouzai is to Japan. It is simple food designed to share where fresh ingredients are encouraged and flavour is paramount. It's also a philosophy on a balanced diet: cooking and eating good food together makes people feel happy.

Featuring more than 70 recipes like shishito peppers with chilli miso, pumpkin goma-ae and ohitashi spinach, this is everyday Japanese cooking at its best no matter the occasion.

Key points

- For the younger, urban reader and cook, aged 20-50
- For fans of Hetty McKinnon, Nagi Maehashi, Julia Busuttill Nishimura and Emiko Davies, but also Alison Roman and Ottolenghi
- For people who like to entertain and make easy, healthy dishes to share with friends and family
- For people who are adventurous with cooking and cuisines, but also like to cook sustainably and seasonally

OSOUZAI

Meg Tanaka

Meg Tanaka founded the CIBI restaurant and design stores with her partner Zenta in 2008 to blend their backgrounds and experience in food, wine, design and architecture. Since opening the doors to their lifestyle concept store and cafe almost 16 years ago, owners Meg and Zenta Tanaka have established CIBI as a much-loved Melbourne institution for Japanese inspired food and wares.

With spaces now in both Melbourne and Tokyo, CIBI is a cafe and a retail store that focuses on good quality produce and design pieces. But it's also much more than these things. It's very much a family business – a family that goes beyond Meg, Zenta and their sons Uta (11) and twins Haru and Shun (6), extending to its staff, customers, makers, growers, neighbours and even major celebrities like Harry Styles who dropped in for a feed during his world tour in 2023.

Located in a former garment factory, the CIBI space might be vast in scale, but it feels warm and intimate, almost like you're entering the home of a close friend. That feeling is a testament to Meg and Zenta's dream of building a creative life and business that work in harmony together, where everyone feels welcome and the small, daily joys are celebrated. In 2018 Meg and Zenta wrote and published the CIBI cookbook.

COLOUR HOUSE

Harper by Design

Vibrant spaces to brighten your world.

We live in minimalist times, where many of us are too afraid to introduce bold use of colour into our clean, white homes.

Yet colour is an essential part of the human existence and to life on Earth in general. Colour inspires. Colour enhances. Colour connects.

Featuring stunning full-colour photography and divided by room, this is the ultimate guide to calming blues, vivid yellows, energising reds and beyond.

HOW TO KEEP YOUR CLOTHES FOREVER

Leah Giblin

A practical guide to buying less and caring more for your clothing.

Leah Giblin grew up with the best dress-up collection, spending hours styling and playing with her siblings. She has always loved making clothes and she's also always cared deeply about environmental issues. In an era of fast fashion where far too many clothes are being made and discarded, Leah reinvents the clothing she already owns instead of buying something new.

In How to Keep Your Clothes Forever, learn practical ways to apply this 'dress-up box' philosophy to your own life, so you can buy fewer new clothes, take better care of your old ones, and give well-loved pieces a new lease on life. Whether you're new to sewing or a professional looking to level up, Leah's clear step-by-step projects will help you to fall (back) in love with the clothes you already own, and arm you with the necessary knowledge to make truly sustainable and ethical choices that are not just good for your wallet but the planet too.

Leah Giblin

Leah Giblin is a Sydney-based textile designer, teacher and costume artist with a focus on sustainability, recycling, waste reduction and non-chemical processes.

Through design and the use of natural dyes, fibres and upcycled materials, Leah's locally manufactured label Day Keeper achieves minimal waste and environmental impact. She also runs a variety of mending, natural dyeing and upcycling workshops for local councils and museums; teaches fashion and textiles to university students; and is the mother of two beautiful eco-warriors of the future.

Key Points

- Great gift and self-purchase
- Many people feel helpless about what they can do to tackle fast fashion and climate change. Leah's knowledge and projects will not only help save the planet, but also valuable time and money too
- Crafting books have always been perennial and continue to sell well
- The cost-of-living crisis around the world means we're all having to find ways to spend less and use what we have

THE MET GALA: RED CARPET STYLE

Harper By Design

Iconic fashion moments from the world's most exclusive event.

Since 1948, The Met Gala has attracted an A-list crowd to the steps of New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art on the first Monday in May each year.

It's the biggest event on the fashion calendar, where celebrities vie to flaunt looks that will resonate for years to come, and earn themselves a place in fashion history as a certified icon of style.

Featuring over 80 stunning photographs of stars from Cher and Sarah Jessica Parker to Rihanna and Zendaya, this unauthorised book showcases their most striking outfits and is the perfect way to relive decades of sartorial elegance and breath-taking glamour.

THE MET GALA: RED CARPET STYLE

Harper By Design

Key Points

- The Met Gala is popularly regarded as the world's most prestigious and glamorous fashion event
- It has evolved beyond the New York fashion epicenter to become increasingly global and diverse in its perspective and scope, and in recent years has achieved cult status for fashion fans all over the world
- The red carpet is where all the action (and photos) occur ... the actual exhibition and charity dinner have become secondary to how celebrities arrive and work their entry to the event
- Beautiful gift format with gold foil and gilded edges at an appealing price!

ICONS OF STYLE: CHANEL & DIOR

Harper By Design

Live advice from fashion legends.

Arguably two of the most recognisable fashion designers of all time, these unauthorised collections of inspirational quotes demonstrate the spirit of a true style icon, and reflect on fashion, elegance, success, beauty and beyond.

Key points

- For fans of Megan Hess, The Little Books of Fashion and The Complete Catwalk Collections
- Chanel and Dior are perennially popular
- Perfect Mother's Day impulse purchase

WILD SWIMS NEW ZEALAND

Nicola McCloy

Nicola McCloy is a Southlander whose parents instilled in her a love of the great Kiwi road trip. Sandwiched between two extroverted siblings, she grew up spending a lot of time looking out the window of the Datsun 180B and wondering what was happening in the big, wide world of the South Island. Since then, she's made it her mission to find out, with particular focus on the mediums of pies, suspension bridges and transport museums. She has written more than 20 books, all telling different New Zealand stories and including the bestsellers Let's Get Lost, Whykickamoocow, Made in New Zealand and The Speight's Southern Man Cookbook.
